

EUMA conference on positive communication

The European Management Assistants (EUMA) are organising their annual education conference which will focus on “The positive approach to communication and the power of thought.”

The conference takes place today, May 12, at the Europa Hotel in Nicosia. Speakers at the conference will talk about the importance of effective communication in the workplace, the magic of the Greek language and positive experiences in daily lives.

Further information is available from 22555016.

FINANCIAL MIRROR

Τετάρτη, 12 Μαΐος 2010, π. 4

